

I need the lake

I want a waterfall but I need the lake
Stillness taking charge of this chaos that I make Tranquility's a haven no one could ever take
I want a waterfall but I need the lake

I want a waterfall but I need the lake
Beauty that is genuine, joy that isn't fake
Gazing on its majesty I could come awake
I want a waterfall but I need the lake

I want a waterfall, dripping with surprise
Cascading for me always before my very eyes
But all of this exquisiteness
Can never compensate
I want a waterfall but I need the lake

I want a waterfall but I need the lake
Fleeting is the fantasy that intoxicates
Oh, for some serenity all I would forsake
I want a waterfall but I need the lake

I want a waterfall where nothing is denied
Ecstasy in everything, always gratified
But it leaves me with emptiness
That I just can't shake
I want a waterfall but I need the lake

I want a waterfall, dripping with surprise
Cascading for me always before my very eyes
But all of this exquisiteness
Can never compensate
I want a waterfall but I need the lake
I need the lake, I need the lake
