

When the roof comes falling

When the roof comes falling
There'll be no time for stalling
Mountains will be crashing to the sea
A fearful expectation without explanation
Hear the nations calling
When the roof comes falling

When the roof comes falling
See, the snakes are crawling
It's just about as bad as it can be
Taking it, shaking it – everybody's faking it
Drop the net you're hauling
When the roof comes falling

When the roof comes falling
The weak will take a mauling
Every shark is going to want his fee
Running for the exit; what doesn't build up wrecks it
It's going to be appalling when the roof comes
When the roof comes, when the roof comes falling

By the time this roof comes falling
No one is stone walling
There won't be time to argue or agree
Forget about your sampling, get ready for a trampling
It's going to be galling
When the roof comes falling

When the roof comes falling
Eyes are going to be balling
I'm getting quite afraid of all I see
Judgment day for one and all; get ready for a wake up call
Dredger's going to be trawling when the roof comes falling
